When I don't understand
My life it's still in your hands
I won't lose confidence
In who you are
In who you are

Every fear that's been raised
Will bow down in your name

All was conquered at the cross
My provider
God my healer
Hope invading every heart
With you we stand in victory

From barren womb to borrowed tomb
In every promise you are true
Now this veil Ripped in two
My hope found in you

God my healer
Hope invading every heart
With you we stand in victory

With you we stand in victory
